Draft South East and Tablelands Regional Transport Plan

If you live, work, visit or do business in the South East and Tablelands region, we want to know what matters most to you when it comes to the future of transport in your area.

We're planning for the future transport needs of the communities of the South East and Tablelands region. The Draft Plan provides a blueprint for transforming the way people and goods travel within, to and through the region over the next 20 years.
